

Gem SAPHIRE

Reliable Supply. Delivered Simply.

Who We Are

Gem Sapphire is a procurement and supply chain partner delivering essential goods to organisations operating in high-risk and underserved environments such as South Sudan.

What We Supply

Workwear, PPE, medical uniforms, protective gear, and institutional clothing solutions tailored for construction, healthcare, logistics, and humanitarian operations.

Our Approach

We act as a single accountable procurement partner—managing sourcing, logistics, and delivery to ensure reliability, consistency, and reduced risk for our clients.

Early Traction

Gem Sapphire has already secured its first order for medical uniforms, demonstrating real market demand and early validation of the business model.
